

Kelly Gilmore, MPH

kellyg18@uw.edu | MyNCBI Bibliography

EDUCATION

Master's in Public Health, 2014

University of Washington

Community-Oriented Public Health Practice

Bachelor of Art, 2006

The Evergreen State College

WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Washington Schools of Medicine and Public Health (2015 - present)

- Associate Director, Research Operations, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology April 2019- present
Provide operational and strategic leadership to the research division of ~70 people; manage departmental research shared services team. Develop policy and procedures for research. Manage operational research budgets.
- Clinical Instructor, Community-Oriented Public Health Practice Program September 2015- present
Previous instructor for Community-Engaged Participatory Program Evaluation HSERV 538; capstone supervisor.
- Research Scientist June 2015- April 2019
Design research studies, analyze qualitative and quantitative data for publication and presentations, procure grant funding, supervise research staff and trainees, engage key community stakeholders in research plan development, ensure fiscal and regulatory compliance on funded projects.

Washington State Board of Health (2015; Temporary Limited Term Position)

Health Policy Analyst

Describe the public health implications of policy proposals at the request of Washington State Legislators, the Governor, and The Governor's Interagency Council on Health Disparities through literature reviews, policy, and data analysis.

Seattle Children's Research Institute; Center for Child Health, Behavior and Development (2014- 2015)

Clinical Research Associate

Manage grant funds for a randomized controlled trial with 31 sites across the US. Develop standardized processes and forms for sites. Create communication materials for families to disseminate study updates and findings.

Planned Parenthood of the Great Northwest (2009- 2013)

Patient Care Team Lead

Manage and train clinic and volunteer staff of 12, provide medically accurate reproductive health education and health services, lead clinic quality improvement initiatives. Conduct: blood draws, pregnancy options counseling, HIV testing.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT/SERVICE

- Aurora Commons Board of Directors, Executive Committee Jan 2020 – Jan 2022
- Public Health Seattle and King County, Syringe Exchange Program Volunteer 2017 – 2020
- The Human Right to Family Planning, Steering Committee Member, 2015
- Neighborcare School-Based Health Program Volunteer, 2014-2015
- People's Harm Reduction Alliance, Communications Volunteer 2013
- Public Health Seattle and King County, Jail Health Services Hepatitis C Prevention Intern 2012-2013
- Planned Parenthood of Western Washington, Olympia Teen Clinic Volunteer; 2005-2007

TRAINING/CERTIFICATIONS

- Management and Leadership in Healthcare, University of Washington Department of Global Health, 2019
- Quality and Safety Certificate, Institute for Healthcare Improvement, 2019
- Leadership Education in Adolescent Health (LEAH), Medium Term Trainee; 2013-2014